

JOB OPENING AT COLUMBUS PUBLIC HEALTH

Social Work Supervisor

Columbus CARE Coalition

Columbus Public Health is seeking a Social Work Supervisor with the Columbus CARE Coalition, a collaborative effort to address community trauma. The Columbus CARE Coalition is comprised of members of the community who believe that when trauma happens to one, it happens to all of us. We seek to support, educate, and engage community organizations who serve Columbus residents including mental health providers, community organizations, city government, and community activists. Collectively, our work will increase sensitivity, awareness and build resilience in neighborhoods and families. The CARE team interacts with a wide variety of key community stakeholders in effort to best serve clients.

This position manages the CARE Coalition staff with a direct supervisory role for the CARE Program Manager, CARE Social Workers, and CARE Outreach Workers providing both clinical and administrative supervision. The position will provide overall oversight of CARE specific program functions, workgroups, and trainings. The position will also support and carry out crisis intervention tasks and expedited referrals to address needs related to social determinants of health. Position will oversee CARE Coalition outreach as well.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS INCLUDE:

Master's in Social Work with Licensed Independent Social Worker with Supervisory status (LISW-S) preferred. Previous experience within the healthcare field, in crisis and trauma work, community based outreach/social work activities, and strong management skills preferred. Possession of a valid State of Ohio license as an Independent Social Worker (LISW) and one (1) year of supervisory experience required. Experience with crisis intervention and knowledge of working with variety of different communities including various cultural backgrounds and socio-economic statuses.

SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE:

This unique position oversees staff with both an individual and community focus, requiring the ability to be flexible and open to emergent issues and needs as they arise. The ability to work weekend and evening hours as needed is required to respond to urgent community situations. Demonstrated social work ability to engage, intervene, and supervise staff. Knowledge of community engagement, vicarious trauma, advocacy, ability to motivate and support a team, effective documentation skills, and excellent communication skills (written and verbal). Passionate commitment to principles of diversity, equity and inclusion, advocacy, health protection for all, excellence, innovation, team work, and service.
